CRUSHED THE "L" STATION.

Traffic Impeded by Brooklyn's Big Fire.

Trains on Brooklyn's Kings County "L" FREE OF CHARGE. road are running a "wild cat" schedule today, because the uptown track and part of the EVERY STATE IN THE UNION TO station at Flatbush avenue and Fulton street TAKE ORDERS FOR OUR STYLISH was demolished by the falling clock tower of GARMENTS, MADE TO ORDER. was demolished by the falling clock tower of Smith, Gray & Co.'s big building, which was burned yesterday.

Between Elm place and Lafayette ave. the downtown track is used by trains going in both directions.

This necessitates frequent delays on both sides of these stations, and a consequent irregular running of trains.

The C mage to the "L" structure is so great that it will probably be two or three days before traffic can be resumed on both tracks at the Flatbush avenue station. The fire that caused such delay to Brooklyn's "L" traffic was one of the most disas-$500,000.

The big structure is a total wreck to-day, with only menacing walls and smoking debris remaining. On each side of it on Fulton and Nevins streets and also on Grove place, in the rear of the tlock, are several establishments that were totally wresked or badly damaged. It is said that there was $503,000 insurance on the limith, Gray & Co. building and its contents. Both owners of the building were at the reene of the fire this morning but postively refused to be interviewed.

The police estimate of the losses, all partially covered by insurance, is as follows:
Smith & Randolph, building. $175,000

Smith & Randelph, building #175,000 Smith & Randelph, goods in storehouse 150,000 Smith, Gray & Co. storehouse 150,000 Cox Latate. 256, 538 and 540 Fulton st 45,000 John U. Grennell, Palits, 536 Fulton
